

EXPORTS FOR PAST MONTH

Lumber Shipments, Domestic and Foreign, From Columbia Exceed 21,000,000 Feet.

BUT TWO FOREIGN CARGOES

Nineteen Vessels Clear Coastwise, Exclusive of Leggett, Which Sailed South With Monster Log Raft.

| | |
|--------------------|-------------------|
| Domestic shipments | 7,269,832 |
| Foreign shipments | 4,173,599 |
| Log raft | 10,000,000 |
| Total | 21,443,431 |

The above summary represents the lumber shipments from the Columbia river for the month of September. In view of the record of the previous month, the showing is a very favorable one. It so happened that many of the lumber carriers did not return in time to clear during September, and if cargoes of the vessels now about loaded figured in the September statement the showing would have been a much better one.

Domestic Shipments.

Thirteen vessels cleared for domestic ports during the month with full and partial cargoes. This statement does not include the log raft which the steamer Francis H. Leggett towed south. The domestic cargoes sent away during the month were as follows:

| Vessel | Feet |
|---------------|------------------|
| Redondo | 275,000 |
| Aurelia | 350,000 |
| Andy Mahoney | 730,000 |
| Chico | 100,000 |
| Bee | 600,000 |
| Northland | 835,000 |
| Acme | 500,000 |
| James Johnson | 1,188,832 |
| Redondo | 771,000 |
| Aurelia | 250,000 |
| Churchill | 900,793 |
| Aberdeen | 310,000 |
| Zampa | 460,000 |
| Total | 7,269,832 |

The new Warrenton mill figures in the shipments for the past month, a total of 750,000 feet of lumber having been sent away from that point. The Aberdeen took away 250,000 feet and the Acme 500,000 feet.

Foreign Shipments.

The foreign shipments of lumber for the month were as follows:

| Vessel | Feet | Value |
|---------------|------------------|--------------------|
| Inca | 1,284,945 | $13,651.68 |
| Crusader | 2,888,654 | 26,697.77 |
| Totals | 4,173,599 | $40,249.45 |

The cargoes of the Inca and Crusader were sent to Shanghai.

Flour and Wheat Exports.

The total value of foreign exports exclusive of lumber for September is shown by the monthly statement to have been $292,086, which is very low as compared with shipments for other months. Only two vessels cleared during the month—the British ship Beacon Rock and the steamship Aztec. The Inca had 113,091 bushels of wheat, worth $93,500, while the Aztec took 51,404 barrels of flour, valued at $165,617.

The last-named vessel had other merchandise which brought the total value of her cargo up to $198,588.

A PROBLEM.

Have you ever watched a fellow, when he's working by the day—
How his slow feet move more slowly when the boss has gone away,
How hard he tries to save his hands by using up his brains,
How the shady spots seem always to be needing special pains,
How resting spells come often, and how long he eats at noon,
How late he gets to working, though he always quits too soon?

Just watch the next one, and you'll find
There's truth in what I say,
For he's working by the day,—day—day—
He's—working—by the—day!

Have you ever watched a fellow, when he's working by the job—
How his violent gyrations fairly make your pulses throb,
How he never stops to whistle and he never stops to sing,
And no matter how the boys call, he doesn't hear a thing;
How he gives the "lick and promise" to the work he's set to do;
And you think he's scarcely started till, behold! the fellow's through?

There's no doubt the face of nature will be marred by many a daub,
For he's working by the job, job, job!
He's working by the job!
—Lillian Townsend Taylor, in Success.

Water That Can Magnetize.

A reputable scientific publication is sponsor for the statement that in at least three places in the state of Indiana springs or wells whose water possesses marked magnetism and is able to impart it to steel articles dipped therein. This property has been reported of other springs in various parts of the world, but such tales have been received by scientific men with caution. In this case the magnetism seems to arise from the fact that considerable quantities of carbonate of iron are dissolved in the water. When it stands for some time this decomposes into carbonic acid gas, which escapes, and magnetic iron oxide, which falls to the bottom of the containing vessel as a powder. When the decomposition has ceased, the water is no longer magnetic. These springs are said to cause perceptible deviation of a compass needle, and a knife blade immersed for five minutes in one of the springs is magnetized sufficiently to sustain a property for 20 hours. The water corrodes locomotive boilers, but, when allowed to stand till the carbonate has all decomposed, can be used with impunity.—Success.

Even Boston Slips a Little.

If we are to believe the Scientists, Boston is slowly sinking into the sea. The datum plane, to which all elevations are referred by the city engineering departments, shows that after a lapse of 72 years we are .79 of a foot nearer the sea than we were. In other words, the land of Boston and vicinity is sinking at the rate of about a foot per 100 years.—Boston Globe.

WITH HAMMER AND HATCHET

Carrie Nation and Three Companions Start Something in Wicked City of Wichita.

THEN ARE THROWN IN JAIL

Women Go to Liquor Warehouse, Where They Smash Two Large Plate Glass Windows.

Wichita, Kan., Sept. 30.—True to her promise to make matters lively in the wicked city of Wichita, Mrs. Carrie Nation and a handful of eccentric followers used various weapons on plate glass windows about 5 o'clock this afternoon. Then the police intervened, and the four women of the party were thrown in jail, where they are now engaged in prayer.

Mrs. Nation was accompanied by Mrs. Lucy Wilhelm, Mrs. Lydia Mountz and Mrs. Myra McHenry when she started upon her destructive crusade. The women went to the Mahan Wholesale Supply Company's warehouse this afternoon and there broke two large plate glass windows. Mrs. Nation used her customary hatchet, while Mrs. McHenry was armed with a hammer.

About the time the women had broken the windows the police put in an appearance and the four were taken to jail. A man offered to bail out the offenders, and when his offer was rejected he became abusive and was locked up in a cell adjoining that occupied by the women.

Mrs. Nation and her friends knelt in a circle and have been engaged in prayer most of the time since their arrest. Mrs. Nation's hatchet was taken from her and Mrs. McHenry's hammer was also gathered up by the police. The women demanded the return of the weapons, which, they claim, they cherish.

Uncle Sam's Wealth.

With 7 per cent. of the world's land area and 5 per cent. of its population, the United States has 25 per cent. of the world's wealth. The value of the United States property, real and personal, in 1900 was $40,000,000,000, as compared with $59,000,000,000 for Great Britain and Ireland, $48,000,000,000 for France, $45,000,000,000 for Germany, $32,000,000,000 for Russia, $23,000,000,000 for Austria-Hungary, $18,000,000,000 for Italy, and $12,000,000,000 for Spain. Moreover, the United States' lead of all the other nations in wealth is increasing faster than is her preponderance over them (except Russia and China) in population.—Leslie's Weekly.

The Englishman's Income.

The total annual income of the people of the United Kingdom, as estimated by Sir Robert Giffen and Professor Bowley, approaches $10,000,000,000. Our population at this moment is as nearly as possible 43,000,000. Dividing $10,000,000,000 by 43,000,000, we get nearly $235 as the annual income per head of the British people. Taking a family of five persons, we see that the average

Explorers.

Few explorers have gained great wealth. Most of them have either forfeited life in the pursuit of their ambitious projects or been satisfied with small pension. Sir Henry Stanley was an exception. He left an estate of more than 750,000, amassed largely from the sale of his books. Livingstone's fortune did not amount to one-tenth of this. Du Chailu passed almost penniless. No explorer before Stanley found exploring a paying vocation.
